

is an app to configure projects. In this app users can create projects, test projects and upload them to the cloud. The app is available only to authorized users of iRidium.