Modules are created by iRidium mobile team and third-party developers. All created modules are tested by iRidium mobile team, and after successful tests modules are placed in iRidium store. Modules in iRidium store can be free and commercial.