

Auto search and addition of modules. To find devices automatically go to "Devices" section and choose 'Scan Home Network'. In the window that appears you'll see a list of devices that can be found automatically. After choosing any item in this list, the local network is scanned and devices of the selected type are found. A universal scanner is planned to be developed in the future to find any devices in the local net.