with i3 Config on a tablet an integrator can edit a project at any place at any time. After editing a project is saved in iRidium Cloud and a user gets a notification that the projects is changed and a user has to update it.