

Advanced Action is used when the command is known but the value is unknown. The value is set dynamically when Action is used in i3 lite (but not when creating in iRidium studio).