

Remote - interface part of the module, which has a set of device functions and opens to the full screen, when you click on the widget button