

Authorization window - Authorization is required to work with some devices. To do this, the developer can create a special authorization window that is available in the module settings