

The module settings window is a window where you need to enter the parameters for the module operation