To design an interface and to add a driver, you are to develop the logics of module work via script. The script part of developing i3 lite modules has a number of special features. Before developing the script part of i3 lite modules, please, read iRidium Pro API and i3 lite API.