

Add an event. An event is an obligatory part of creating rules. This event works via a function.