

if you create a driver not at the app launch but later, call Connect\(\) method for this driver for it to connect to equipment. Drivers created at the app launch connect automatically. If required, they can be disconnected using the following method