

In case of Simple Event all information is known the moment it is created. In case of Advanced Action it is required to write data entering in the MDX register in the script.