

Creation of panel modules on the basis of the server ones.

Before creating the panel module save your server module.

To create the panel module which will communicate with the current server module, find the module in the tree, right-click on it and select "Create i3 lite Module":