

You can make this process automatic and write the internal module function which will add postfix to get access to popups.