

Widget - a visual module component located in a room. It has limitations in size and a fixed position in the room interface. It contains the main module functionality. Remote is used for additional functions .