

The input parameter of the method:

statusOnStartName - the channel name.

Parameters - the channel properties.

The output property of the method is True or False (successful or not).

You are not required to create Feedback for this channel as it receives data at the module launch.

Let us see how to create Feedback for another channel: