Scene - a sequence of control commands of different modules which is activated automatically when a particular event happens. It contains Event, Action and Condition.