

5.9. Create scanner

Scanner (scanner) - is a software part, which analyzes any bus for connected devices. The connected devices are formed in the list, the module for the selected device is downloaded and becomes available in i3 lite.

The scanner can only be created using the script. The scanner is a .js file that, as well as the module, is loaded onto Store.