The structure of the scanner work:

- The scanner is downloaded from Store;
- The user enters the scanner parameters (IP, Port, etc) and these parameters are sent to the scanner script;
- After processing the parameters the scanner sends a request to the bus about connected devices;
- From these devices a list is created;
- When you select a specific device in the list, the scanner sends the parameters of the selected device into the module.