

JSON objects are stored in Setup, their fields:

- DeviceType - the device type, string. Supported types: "HTTP", "TCP" and "UDP";
- Parameters - the array of objects, each object describes a field. The value of this field is transferred to the corresponding device parameter or to the module;
- Tokens - the array of objects, each object describes a field. The value of this field is transferred to the module token.