

Condition - a component of macros and scenes. It describes the control command and value range. When a value from the value range is sent Action is executed.