

Module is a subprogram to control equipment, that has control widgets and a set of components to create macros and scenes. Modules are downloaded from iRidium store.