Macro is a set of commands to control equipment that are activated by a graphical button.