Scene is a logical component of a project that tracks changes in equipment state and reacts to the change as set. A scene can be server and panel. A panel scene works as long as iRidium lite app is launched on users' panels. A server scene works on a server, even when the app is not launched.