A server can be added to any project, but a project can work without a server. The server is responsible for centralized conrtol of equipment 24/7, work of Push notifications and control of equipment via the Internet.