Integrator's account is an account with a capability to create projects, save them in the cloud, download projects from the cloud and use them. There are three possible statuses that determine the price, testing options and a capability to create projects