

Launch the i3 lite application and start to create a project. The application will ask you to add a server. You need to agree.