

When you set the type for the device, its actions and virtual tags - it means your module is fully ready for management using SmartAPI.