

The principle of SmartAPI operation is as follows: SmartAPI searches for the devices of the required type in the project and causes corresponding action by all these devices. In the image above, SmartAPI will cause the "Enable" action for all devices of the "Light" type in the project. Thus, if all the light bulbs are added to the project, then the light will turn on throughout the house.